Artists of Articulation Seeks New Members

Would you like to improve your public speaking skills, make new friends and explore different topics?

Did you know that public speaking is the #1 fear held by Canadians?

The Artists of Articulation is a creative, fun and supportive group, whose members work together on public speaking exercises and other activities to overcome such fears. The communication and leadership skills learned by members, come in handy every day – especially when one is on an employment journey.

This communication and leadership group is designed for young adults (aged 17+) who would like to:

- develop their self-confidence
- work on presentation and public speaking skills
- explore new topics and areas of interest with others

Come join a group of community members with diverse abilities and learn with us!
